About the Journal of Nepalese Management Academia

The Journal of Nepalese Management Academia is a scholarly publication with double-blind peer review that will annually publish high-quality papers employing multidisciplinary techniques with a significant emphasis on developing issues of general management, human resource management, organizational behaviour, business, economics, finance, administration, and other social sciences. Its main objective is to disseminate knowledge and study results on various socioeconomic development concerns in Nepal and other nations. It seeks to offer strong theoretical and empirical research findings for an intellectual forum for the exchange of ideas to social scientists in Nepal and around the world.

Submission Information

Papers between 4,000 and 7,000 words in length can be submitted by interested authors/researchers. The submitted papers shouldn't have already been published or be in the process of being published elsewhere. The editorial board has complete rights in selecting whether to accept or reject submitted papers. The views stated in the articles are those of the authors and may not represent those of the editors or publisher. All accepted publications are covered by copyright by the Office of the Dean, Faculty of Management, Tribhuvan University. Without the Office's explicit authorization, no portion of an article that has been published in this journal may be duplicated other than as permitted by the law that is presently in effect.
